

Bryan Cave Corporate Trust introduces European Corporate Trust Team for Disputes and Proceedings

Our European Corporate Trust Team for Disputes and Proceedings represents and supports Bond Trustees, Security Trustees and other service providers such as cash managers in the various differences and disputes that can occur during the life of a transaction.

In particular, Bryan Cave’s substantial experience in the origination of securitisation transactions and their structure, including CMBS, RMBS and CLOs, means that we are well placed to advise on the construction of transaction documents when differences of interpretation arise.

Our European Corporate Trust Team for Disputes and Proceedings focuses on disputes and proceedings. It comprises a mix of transaction and documentation expertise with litigation and dispute resolution specialisms. Our experience includes Part 8 Claims and all aspects of the advice that a Trustee or other service provider requires to ensure that it is properly protected. In addition to the advice we give on a particular issue, we are able to provide dedicated workshops and training to our clients and contacts and their in-house teams.
